

DFP - INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

This diploma is designed for those who work or plan to work in international organizations or in protocol and diplomatic services. The obtention of this diploma will attest to your French proficiency in international political and diplomatic contexts.

Example of activities covered: write a summary note, organize a formal event, write an official statement, present a mission or a project, present a country situation, present a position during a negotiation, etc.

The levels offered:

DFP - International Relations
A1
A2
B1	✓
B2	✓
C1	✓

Who is it intended for?

- National and international workers
- Diplomats
- Journalists
- International Relations students (aged 16 at least)

What are the skills assessed?

- Written and spoken information processing
- Written and oral communication

Click here for more information.

DFP examinations are organized at the Alliance Française Malte-Méditerranée. Contact us at info@alliancefr.org.mt for more information.