

DFP - HEALTH

This diploma certifies your ability to use the French language efficiently, in oral and written professional communication, in the medical and paramedical fields.

Example of activities covered: interact with French-speaking patients and healthcare professionals, complete a medical file, design a prevention campaign, complete a care protocol, intervene on a public health topic with a non-specialist audience, write a prescription, etc.

The levels offered:

| DFP - Health | |
|--------------|---|
| A1 | |
| A2 | |
| B1 | ✓ |
| B2 | ✓ |
| C1 | ✓ |

Who is it intended for?

- Professionals of the medical area
- Students in the related fields (aged 16 at least)

What are the skills assessed?

- Written and spoken information processing
- Written and oral communication

Click here for more information.

DFP examinations are organized at the Alliance Française Malte-Méditerranée. Contact us at info@alliancefr.org.mt for more information.