OUR CLASSES

Unless otherwise indicated, our classes comprise a maximum of 12 students. Classes with fewer than 4 applicants shall not open. In the case where there is a great demand for a particular course, the AFMM might have to divide the students into 2 classes in order to obtain an equal number of students.

TEXTBOOKS / EXAMINATION FEES

Unless otherwise indicated, textbooks and/or examination fees are not included in the course fees.

BOOKINGS AND RESERVATIONS

Bookings are on a first come first served basis. Registration is final upon receipt of application form together with full payment.

CANCELLATIONS AND REFUNDS

Should there be insufficient applicants to a particular course, students will be given a choice between a full refund of the course fee or agree to a reduction in the total number of hours of the course. Should a student wish to cancel a registration a week before the course is due to start, fees will be refunded less a €15 administration fee. The AFMM regrets that there will be no refunds for classes not attended or for the cancellation of a course by a student once the course has begun. Course fees are non-transferable.

Given the Covid-19 situation, courses might be held either online or at the AFMM's premises. Decision will be taken at the discretion of the AFMM, depending on the government's recommendations. As the context is independent from the AFMM's control, no refund will be granted.

PLACEMENT TEST

If you know some French and would like to check your level before applying for one of our courses, you may sit for a Written Placement Test. The written placement test costs €20 and will be refunded when registering for a course upon presentation of the test; the tests are sent via email and corrected by our teachers. If a further assessment is required, an oral placement test will be carried out at the Alliance Française. The test costs €15 and is not refundable.

MEMBERSHIP FEE & ADVANTAGES

Students applying for any course may opt to become a Member by paying a membership fee of €20 (€25 - Family rate).
